

The Sassy Stilettos team puts on the dogs.

The Broward Health High Healers, this year's top fund-raising team.

Glam Doll Strut

Stepping out against breast cancer, in high heels and sarongs

Esplanade Park was transformed into a sea of pink Oct. 13, as downtown Fort Lauderdale welcomed the Glam Doll Strut for the seventh consecutive year.

Hundreds of women, men, kids — and some elaborately decorated dogs — sashayed down Himmarshee Street and then sang, danced and otherwise performed in front of a panel of celebrity judges at the event, part of the Glam-A-THON series, which raises funds for local women battling breast cancer.

While event founder Tammy Gail, a breast cancer survivor herself, says that the money is still being counted — proceeds will be donated to the Broward Health Foundation on Nov. 7 — there is no question that this year's installment of the Strut was a wild success.

"It was truly the ultimate stiletto smackdown," Gail says. "No other breast cancer event features brains, brawn, beauty, talent and an amazing fundraising army."

—Robyn A. Friedman

(full story at www.cityandshore.com/features; and photo galleries on our Facebook page, CityAndShoreMagazine)

Nicole Krauss, Manager of Media & Community Relations for Publix; Maria Brous, Director of Corporate Media & Community Relations for Publix; and Glam-A-THON founder Tammy Gail, right, accepting a check from Publix, which made the biggest donation to Glam-A-THON this year.

WSVN News Anchor and Deco Drive host Lynn Martinez, who made a one-of-a-kind entrance.

Event Founder Tammy Gail and Lisa Pirro, center right, whose Jolly Jigglers team last year won the coveted Ms. Fabulosity title, repeated with a team that included Polynesian dancers from the Mai-Kai Restaurant in Fort Lauderdale.

Jamal Clarke, City of Lauderhill Fire Rescue; Erick Gonzalez, Miami-Dade Fire Rescue; Michael Korte, Broward Sheriff's Office Fire Rescue; and Kenny Kovac, East Lake Fire Rescue. All current or formerly featured in the South Florida Firefighters calendar.